

The Better Helper — Hebrews 2:10–18

Main Idea: Jesus is our Better Helper – fully human, suffered for us, defeated death, and leads the way home to God.

Introduction – Roadside Assistance?

Jesus Helps Us...

I. By sharing our humanity and struggles (vs. 10-14a)

- Jesus' suffering equipped Him to help us completely (perfectly).
- Jesus knows our world from the inside:
 - He lived with limits, poverty, and pressure.
 - He felt exhaustion, grief, and relational disappointment.
 - He faced temptation head-on and understands its weight.
- Because He lived what we live, He is the better helper—one who truly understands.

II. By breaking the power of death (vs. 14b-15)

- Jesus shattered death's power.
- Jesus frees us from the fear of dying.
- Jesus helps us face the valley of death without terror.

III. With compassion, mercy, and real-time support (vs. 16-18)

- Jesus draws near.
- Jesus has walked our road.
- Jesus is the ultimate example.

Conclusion

- Walk with the One who stepped into your humanity, felt your pain, faced your temptations, carried your sorrows, and broke the power of death itself.
